(Redness in Ears)

The good news is we have several simple options to keep them comfortable all season long. If you're noticing early signs, it's best to get ahead of it now. Give us a call to get your pet feeling better. We have several treatment options including the following:

- Cytopoint Injections
- Apoquel and Numelvi (Coming Soon)
- Ear Infection treatment packages
- Shampoos and Mousse to relieve skin irritation

Staff Pick: Numelvi (Coming Soon)

Numelvi is a brand new option for managing allergic itching and inflammation in dogs, helping provide fast, effective relief during peak allergy season. We should have Numelvi in the clinic in the next few weeks!!!!
